

DEV DIP GANGULI grew up at the Sri Aurobindo International Centre of Education at Pondicherry (India), also known as the 'Ashram School'. After completing his studies in 2004, he joined Sri Aurobindo Ashram. He has been teaching courses on Indian culture and on the social and political thought of Sri Aurobindo to undergraduate students for the last 17 years. He also assists the trustees of Sri Aurobindo Ashram in their administrative responsibilities.